PUBLIC HEALTH
JAMES P GRANT

Who we are

The Centre of Excellence for Gender, Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (CGSRHR) was set up as a part of BRAC University's James P Grant School of Public Health in 2008, focusing on research, policy, advocacy and training activities in the arena of gender, sexual and reproductive health rights, sexuality and rights in Bangladesh and in the region.

The Centre envisions an empowered Bangladesh where inequalities and inequities in gender, sexual and reproductive health, sexuality and sexual rights have been overcome.

CGSRHR works with the mission to promote a broad-based understanding of SRHR in Bangladesh, focusing on vulnerable groups and young people.

CGSRHR'S academic, advocacy and capacity building pursuits reflect on the principle that realizing and ensuring sexual and reproductive health is the core of human rights and dignity.
