

Celebrating International Women's Day 2022:

The theme of International Women's Day, 8 March 2022 was, “Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow (টেকসই আগামীর জন্য জেডার সমতাই আজ অগ্রগণ্য)”, recognizing the contribution of women and girls around the world, who are leading the charge on climate change adaptation, mitigation, and response, to build a more sustainable future for everyone. Globally the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women are celebrated on this day. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating women's equality.

Along with the theme, this year DMP celebrated the day with discussions on recognising the contribution of women, presentations, debate competitions and cultural performances of the students of Midwifery Education. The students started off the programme with a group presentation on the history behind International Women's Day, the theme of the day was the current progress of women’s development. Later they took part in a small debate competition focusing on the theme of the day and finally gave a tribute to all the women. And in between the discussions, the students performed songs, drama, dance and recited poems. The programme ended with valuable speeches from Dr Ahmed Mushtaque Raza Chowdhury, Convener, Bangladesh Health Watch, Fawzia Nasrin, Programme Manager (Health), Human Capital Team, FCDO and Dr Sharmina Rahman, Assistant Director and Head, DMP, BRAC JPGSPH, BRACU.
