

Enrollment of the new batch Students, welcome ceremony and commencement of academic activities

Developing Midwives Project has enrolled 8th batch of students in seven academic sites. Total 225 students have been enrolled and already have started their physical classes.

